We witness that on the _____ day of the week, the _____ of the month of _____ in the year _____, corresponding to the _____ day of _____ in the year _____, here in _____, the Groom _____, son of _____ said to the Bride _____, daughter of _____,

“I wish to be married to you according to the laws of Moses and Israel, so that you should be my friend and woman of covenant and I will work and support and honor you as is the way of the Jewish people, and I will give you food, clothing, your desires, wants, and needs.” and he agreed to enter into a partnership with the Bride _____. And that the Bride _____ said to the Groom _____: “I wish to be married to you according to the laws of Moses and Israel, so that you should be my friend and man of covenant and I will work and support and honor you as is the way of Jewish people, and I will give you food, clothing, your desires, wants, and needs.” and she agreed to enter into a partnership with him. And they fixed between them the conditions of this Ketubah, that all silver, gold, jewelry, and articles of clothing, furniture and bedding, moveable and real estate that either of them brings shall be in possession of both. And if he would no longer desire the Bride _____ and wish to separate from the Bride _____, the Groom _____ will pay the Bride _____ half of all their property. And if she would no longer desire the Groom _____ and wish to separate from the Groom _____ the Bride _____ will pay the Groom _____ half of all their property. And if their marriage is sundered by the courts of the State, or if one of them leaves their home with the intent of sundering their marriage, and if after six months sends to, or sends for a Get according to the laws of Moses and Israel, then this betrothal and marriage shall be right and good. But if after six months the Get hasn't been received, nor has been sent for according to the laws of Moses and Israel, then this betrothal and marriage will be null and void from the start. And they accepted upon themselves legal responsibility for this Ketubah as weighty as all Ketubah contracts which are made according to the ordinances of our Sages of blessed memory.
